IDEAS FOR ACTS OF CHESED
Offer to run an errand for a friend Cheerfully greet someone Bake an unexpected treat for a friend Remember someone's birthday Call someone going thru a difficult time Leave a friendly note for a family member Listen patiently to others Clean up after dinner without being asked Call someone who lives alone Greet everyone you see with a smile Introduce yourself to someone Apologize for something you've done Take out the garbage without being asked	Give someone an unexpected compliment Spend time with a child with a disability Help strangers in shul feel welcome Take an elderly person shopping Pay attention to what people are saying Spend quality time with family & friends Call or visit someone who is sick Cook a meal for a person in need Visit someone who may be lonely Call someone you haven't spoken to in a while Say thanks - no matter how small the deed Help a child with his / her homework Compliment someone who helps you	Give someone an encouraging note When asked to do something, respond right away in a cheerful and willing manner Drive someone to the doctor Help out family members even if you're busy Help someone find a job Buy a gift for a loved one for no reason Greet everyone with a pleasant "good morning" Write a letter to an elderly person Take a neighbor's garbage cans in from the curb Call someone who recently lost a loved one Congratulate siblings on recent accomplishments

IDEAS FOR JUDGING FAVORABLY
Don't jump to conclusions Judge your neighbor's actions favorably "Judge your fellow man fairly" (Leviticus 19:15) Look for a possible explanation in another's behavior Give your friend the benefit of the doubt Look for the good in others "Judge all people to the side of merit" (Ethics of the Fathers 1:6) Think about "Love your neighbor like yourself", and apply it to others. We all find excuses for ourselves.	Realize that your friend did not see you carrying packages when he/she passed by Remember, it could be a miscommunication... Are we missing any facts? Look for people's strengths Remember, things are not always what they seem! Try to explain... not complain about other people's actions Focus on solutions - not recriminations Remember the excuses one makes for oneself - apply these excuses to the one who wronged you

IDEAS FOR IMPROVING KAVANAH DURING DAVENING
Meditate for 5 minutes before davening Write translations to difficult words in your siddur Think about all Hashem has given you Say the words, “I am standing before Hashem” out loud Remember that Kavanah During Davening is a Halachik requirement of prayer Pronounce each word slowly and clearly Use a siddur, even for Tefillos you know by heart Establish a specific place for davening Concentrate for 3 seconds on each word of a specific tefillah	Learn the meanings of words you do not know Select one prayer a week to say with more kavanah Write down your favorite phrases from davening and focus on them when you daven Arrive before the minyan begins to daven and be ready when they start When davening at home, remove distractions from around you Select one word a day to say with more kavanah Select one phrase a day to say with more kavanah Before you start to daven, review what Hashem has given you in the last 24 hours
IDEAS FOR HAKARAS HATOV
Recognize the good that you possess Appreciate what you do have rather than what you do not have Acknowledge that what you possess is a gift, not something you deserve Develop the habit of saying thank you for everything you receive, both big and small Realize that everything comes from Hashem and is for your good, then thank Him Always see the glass as being half full and be thankful Focus on developing an attitude of gratitude Appreciate the good that a family member does for you and say thank you Appreciate the good that a friend does for you and say thank you Appreciate the good that a colleague does for you and say thank you Appreciate the good that strangers do for you and say thank you	Write a thank you note to express your appreciation Make a telephone call to express your appreciation Give a gift to express your appreciation Express appreciation for routine actions such as taking out the garbage, preparing supper, doing the laundry, cleaning the house, bringing in the newspaper Thank the school bus driver Thank your teacher, thank your child’s teacher Thank the mail carrier for delivering the mail Say Modeh Ani each morning with great feeling Reflect on Modim Anachnu Lach in Shmoneh Esrei Thank Hashem for every breath that you take
IDEAS FOR BITACHON
Trust that whatever Hashem does is for your good Believe that if Hashem wants, He can solve your problem this very minute Realize that Hashem forgets no one and that He loves each of His creations Ask Hashem to help you pray, to teach you how to pray, to open your mouth in prayer Internalize that success is from Hashem and if you turn to Him sincerely, He will certainly help you succeed if it is in your best interest Acknowledge that Hashem knows what is best for you, more than you yourself know	Believe that there is no one but Hashem and that no one can do you harm against Hashem’s will Acknowledge that just as Hashem has helped you many times in the past, He will help you again now Trust that whatever happened is what Hashem wanted to happen and that it is in your best interest Accept that the amount of money that you will make has been decreed by Hashem and have peace of mind that you will get exactly what you are supposed to get

IDEAS FOR IMPROVING ANGER MANAGEMENT
In the past, when you have been able to overcome anger quickly, how did you do it? Learn from people who are able to remain calm in situations that get you angry Learn from people who are able to let go of their anger easily Give anger a chance to subside before speaking by counting from 1 to 10, 1 to 20, etc. When you notice that you are feeling angry, breathe slowly and deeply, exhale slowly When you are about to get angry because of something that someone did to you, focus on some good quality of that person	Use physical exercise to release anger: take a brisk walk, run, dance, jump rope, etc. Meditate on: "Ein od milvado - There is nothing else besides G-d" When you get angry, look at yourself in a mirror to see and hear yourself as others see and hear you when you are angry Write down all your angry thoughts in a letter addressed to the person you are angry at, but do not send it When you are about to get angry, ask yourself, "How important is this in my life?"
IDEAS FOR SHMIRAS HALASHON
Think before speaking Pause to think about what to say and how to say it before responding to someone Give each person the benefit of the doubt Train yourself to avoid judging others Think positive thoughts and avoid negative thoughts Stay calm and avoid getting angry Avoid joking around that could lead to making fun of others Develop a character of humility - avoid arrogance	Be extra careful with Shmiras HaLashon for 1-2 hour(s) each day Never give up hope of one's ability to guard one's tongue Accept the idea that it is possible to speak without gossiping Train yourself to avoid complaining about others Learn the laws of Shmiras HaLashon Walk away from a group that is speaking Lashon Hara If someone starts speaking Lashon Hara to you, respectfully ask them to stop Realize and say to yourself: "It's Not That Important"
